THE SPACE BEFORE

Richard & Eva's Guest Bedroom CONSULTATION NOTES

Current Design Obstacles

Richard and Eva feel the bedroom lacks personality and requires more character and style.

Aspects to Consider

- Various family members stay in the room including Eva's mom who sometimes stays for a few months at a time.
- Current furniture can be upcycled or happy to invest in new furniture pieces.
- Richard and Eva are very handy and comfortable doing a lot of the handywork themselves.
- Budget £1,500 - £3,000

Design Brief

Richard and Eva envision the guest bedroom as a warm and inviting retreat, perfect for accommodating various family members. They seek a cosy and welcoming atmosphere, characterised by relaxation and simplicity, with a keen focus on thoughtful design elements. Richard and Eva are enthusiastic about exploring creative design concepts and are happy to tackle DIY tasks to bring their vision to life.

Likes

- The view from the window
- A gallery wall featuring Richard's photography
- Soft greens such as sage and olive tones
- Yellow and mustard tones
- Plants
- Simple and not too fancy

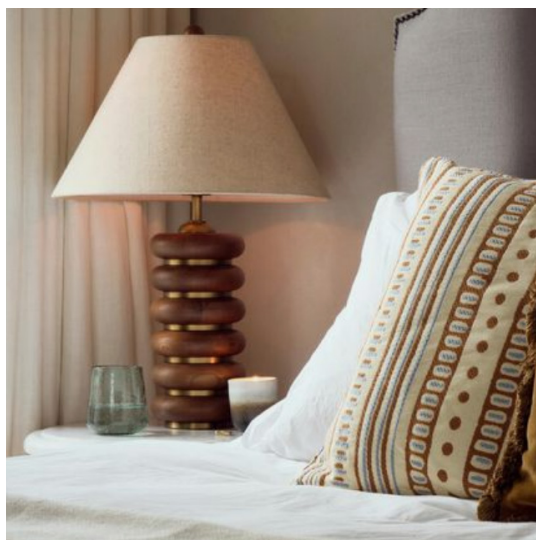

Dislikes

- Too much pine in the current room
- Pastel or very dark colours
- Too many cushions on the bed, 3x max
- Curtains

Richard & Eva's Guest Bedroom REPORT + RECOMMENDATIONS

At Knook Interiors, the interior design recommendations provide expert advice on optimising your space. Offering suggestions on colour schemes, furniture placement, lighting, and decor based on your needs and requirements. These tailored insights help clients achieve a cohesive and stylish environment that reflects their personal taste while maximising comfort and usability. By following the professional recommendations, clients can avoid costly mistakes, save time, and ensure a harmonious and refined space.

Professional Recommendation Examples

A New Bed

I suggest replacing the current bedframe with an upholstered bed to soften the space. Keep the double size and current positioning as I think this works best for optimal functionality. I recommend an upholstered bed in a soft cream or off-white colour with a textured fabric such as boucle or linen. Opt for a bed with storage capabilities to keep everyday items hidden away, promoting a retreat-like, minimal feel. Ensure the headboard height is at least 110cm to provide a strong presence in the room. These changes will make the space feel more inviting and cozy, perfect for relaxation.

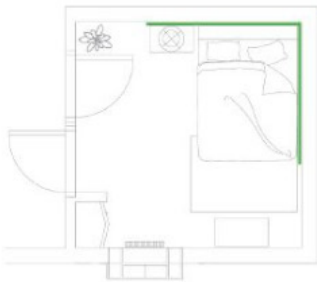

Paint to Remaining Walls

I recommend using a warm off-white colour for all remaining walls throughout the space, not as yellow as the current paint tone. This colour will keep the walls bright and neutral, offering a fresh modern style to all that may use the space. An off-white shade also ensures the walls are easy to touch up, maintaining a fresh and clean appearance with minimal effort.
